

CARRYING PASSENGERS IN CASUALTY VEHICLES WHILST BEING RECOVERED ON TRAILERS

SURVIVE understands that DfT believe the practice of carrying passengers in casualty vehicles whilst being recovered on trailers is illegal. We are therefore seeking clarification on this issue.

In the meantime reference to this practice has been removed from the Coronavirus Safe System of Work, and as soon as we have absolute clarity on the legal position we will provide a further update.